FOLK AROUND THE COAST - SEPTEMBER 2011

FOLK FROM FURTHER FIELDS

G'day Folks,

How many volunteers does it take to change a light bulb? Well, I suppose it depends on where the light bulb is, where to find a replacement, etc, etc. It's a bit of a tricky question to answer really. However, I do know it now takes about 150 volunteers (apart from the organising committee) to put on an event of the size and complexity of the Fleurieu Folk Festival. Actually (to be more accurate) it takes a little over 450 hours of volunteering time over the weekend – from the Thursday to the Monday – which averages out at about 3 hours per volunteer. Volunteers are essential, they are the lifeblood of the Festival. Without them it could not even happen, much less run smoothly. Volunteers are highly valued, appreciated and rewarded with free tea & coffee, free camping, free passes and a chance to win a nice prize for every 2 hours worked. Did I mention the warm, fuzzy feeling from knowing that they contributed to the success of a significant community event? With 2 months to go till the Festival we're roughly halfway towards enlisting the number of volunteers needed, so hopefully we'll get there in time. Gee, how many times did I mention the word "volunteer" in this article? Volunteer, volunteer, volunteer.....

Oh, and I mustn't forget to acknowledge the people who have volunteered to help at our fundraising events throughout the year. Fundraising is another extremely important activity because sponsors help those who help themselves and we still need to raise another $2000 before the 4th week in October .....

Keep Folking!

Pete.

2011 FLEURIEU FOLK FESTIVAL NEWS

BECOME A VOLUNTEER AT THE FESTIVAL

One of the best parts of a folk festival is involvement. By volunteering, you will make new friends and obtain great satisfaction from ensuring everyone has an enjoyable and memorable time at the Festival. A good festival requires lots of volunteers and your skills and time will be highly valued. If you would like to join the Festival Team please visit the Festival website and download a volunteer registration form - <http://www.fleurieufolkfestival.com.au/volunteers.htm> - or you can pick one up from one of the local southern folk sessions.

BILLETS REQUIRED

Due to the higher number of Interstate acts performing at this year's festival, we are looking for more people who would be willing to host some of our visiting performers. Billeting in Willunga itself is preferred but this is not essential provided the artists can be transported to and from the accommodation (sometimes at quite early or late hours). Please phone Annie on 83272797 if you'd like to help out.

FFF 2011 MAJOR RAFFLE

This is one of our major fundraisers for the festival and we need your help to sell tickets. There are $2000 worth of fabulous prizes to be won and it's still only $2 per ticket! Raffle book will be available from now until the festival weekend so please take a book or two to sell to your friends, workmates, etc. Prizes for this year's raffle are:-

LAUGHTER - A Folkie's Cure

A couple go for a meal at a Chinese restaurant and order the 'Chicken Surprise'. The waiter brings the meal, served in a lidded cast iron pot.

Just as the wife is about to serve herself, the lid of the pot rises slightly and she briefly sees two beady little eyes looking around before the lid slams back down.

'Good grief, did you see that?' she asks her husband. He hasn't, so she asks him to look in the pot. He reaches for it and again the lid rises, and he sees two little eyes looking around before it slams down.

Rather perturbed, he calls the waiter over, explains what is happening, and demands an explanation.

'Please sir,' says the waiter, 'what you order?'

The husband replies, 'Chicken Surprise.'

'Ah! So sorry,' says the waiter, 'I bring you Peeking Duck!'

thanks to Martin for this one!
