

FOLK AROUND THE COAST - NOVEMBER

FOLK FROM FURTHER FIELDS

G'day Folks,

Congratulations to everyone who played a part in making this year's Fleurieu Folk Festival a huge success! Judging by the response from all sources we have certainly managed to put "folk" on the map in the region and established the festival as a significant event on the cultural calendar.

To the many people who have thanked and congratulated Annie and me personally, our standard reply is that the festival is a team effort and, while we are happy to accept their good wishes on their behalf, the credit and accolades belong to the whole team of organisers, volunteers and the many, many people who have given their support in countless different ways. We are very conscious that without your efforts and spirit of cooperation it would not be possible to present such an event, so you should all feel extremely proud of yourselves!

One of the notable achievements this year, to my mind, was the continued success of the Youth Program and the showcasing of the impressive array of talent that exists among the next generation of folk performers. The fact that we were able to attract so many young performers and patrons to the festival augurs well for the future. The Fleurieu Youth Program was one of the highlights of festival and has firmly established the Festival's reputation as an event that fosters and encourage the younger generation – congratulations to Jeri Foreman and Sarah McGuire for their roles in generating ideas, liaising with other young performers and managing the program at the festival. I'm sure that the youngsters visiting from interstate will spread the word and enhance our reputation elsewhere and our hope is that our local youth will also be inspired to continue the tradition.

I know it's a bit daunting at this stage to be thinking about next year's event but these things do take a lot of planning and we need to get our organising team (the committee) in place 12 months in advance, so if you would like to become involved, please consider nominating at the Annual General Meeting at the Pt Noarlunga RSL at 1pm on Saturday 12th November. There will be a free barbecue for volunteers and a chance to offer feedback from this year's event and ideas and suggestions for next year before the AGM takes place.

Keep Folking!

Pete.

LAUGHTER - A Folkie's Cure

I was in the public toilets and had just sat down, a voice from the next cubicle said "Hi !, how are you ?"

Embarrassed, I said, "I'm doing fine".

The voice said "So what are you up to ?".....

I said, "Just doing the same as you, sitting here !".....

From next door, "Can I come over?".....

Annoyed, I said " rather busy right now".

The voice said, "Listen, I will have to call you back, there's an idiot next door answering all my questions".

thanks to Chris for this one!!!
